

SOBOBA ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION

Sasha Pachito Appointed as SEDC's Director of Operations

The Soboba Economic Development Corporation (SEDC) is pleased to announce the appointment of Sasha Pachito as our new Director of Operations.

Sasha is a proud member of the Soboba Band of Luiseño Indians and has served as a dedicated member of the SEDC Board of Directors. Currently living in Phoenix, Arizona, she is in the process of relocating to the area with her family.

Sasha is the daughter of Richard "Dungie" Pachito and her grandparents are Mary Basquez and Tony Basquez. She is the eldest daughter of Richard and Suzette and her siblings are Richard Pachito, Ben Pachito, and Sam Pachito. Her other siblings are Aaron Pachito, Monica Pachito, Alyssa Fazekas-King, and the late Tawshma Pachito.

Sasha holds a bachelor's degree in Sociology from Cornell University with minors in American Indian Studies and Latino Studies. She also earned a master's degree in Urban Planning and a graduate certificate in Public Administration from Arizona State University, as well as a master's degree in Legal Studies from the University of Oklahoma.

Professionally, Sasha brings a wealth of experience in public policy, urban planning, and tribal economic development. She previously worked for Akana as a Planner and as a transportation planner with the City of Chandler, Arizona. She has previously contributed to several American Indian organizations, including the American Indian Policy Institute at Arizona State University, the Gila River Indian Community, and the Salt River Pima Maricopa Indian Community.

Sasha's commitment to advancing tribal self-sufficiency and building strong, sustainable, and diverse tribal economies aligns with SEDC's mission and vision. We are confident her leadership and expertise will further strengthen our organization's impact and support the economic growth of the Soboba Band of Luiseño Indians.

Please join us in welcoming Sasha Pachito to her new role as Director of Operations at the Soboba Economic Development Corporation.
